

CompTIA N+

The network + certification is a designation sponsored by CompTIA. It teaches networking fundamentals and basics to individuals with limited knowledge in networking.

Target Audience

This course may be of interest to anyone looking for a career in network administration or system administration. It may also be of importance to those looking to enhance their knowledge regarding the basics of networking.

Objectives:

- Identify basic network theory concepts and major network communications methods.

- Describe bounded network media.
- Describe unbounded network media.
- Identify the major types of network implementations.
- Identify TCP/IP addressing and data delivery methods.
- Analyse routing and switching technologies.
- Identify the components of a TCP/IP implementation.
- Analyse network security.
- Implement network security.

Content

(Network Technician) is recognized as a network technician and helps to demonstrate the ability to know and install network devices and equipment and to find and solve problems.